CHAPTER 291.

AN ACT to amend section 2464 of the statutes of 1898, as amended by chapters 25 and 454 of the laws of 1901, relating to county courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Counties in which court may be held at other places than county seat. SECTION 1. Section 2464 of the statutes of 1898 as amended by chapters 25 and 454 of the laws of 1901, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2464. The county judges of the counties of Columbia, Dodge, Grant, Green Lake, Jefferson, Pepin, Shawano, Washington, Waukesha, Walworth and Fond du Lac may keep their offices and hold special terms of the county court at any time between the times of holding the regular terms and transact any business which might be done at, or which may be continued from, any regular term to such special term at the following places, in their respective counties: in the county of Columbia, at the city of Columbus; in the county of Dodge, at Beaver Dam and Mayville; in the county of Grant, at the city of Platteville; in the county of Green Lake, at Princeton and Berlin; in the county of Jefferson, at the city of Watertown; in the county of Pepin, at the village of Pepin; in the county of Shawano, at the village of Wittenberg; in the county of Washington, at the city of Hartford; in the county of Waukesha, at the city of Oconomowoc; in the county of Walworth, at the city of Whitewater; in the county of Fond du Lac, at Ripon and Waupun.

All orders, judgments and business which shall be made and done at such special terms and places, or as shall have heretofore been so made or done, are declared valid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 1, 1905.
